

Kearney Daily Hub, January 22, 1952, page 1

Hub SPOKES

PAID UP . . . County Treasurer S. A. Wilso believes real estate owners in Harrison Township have reason to be proud. . . His records show that there are no delinquent taxes in this township . . . This means that there are no real estate taxes in the township not paid up to the 1951 taxes which are due now but won't become delinquent until the May 1, deadline for the first half . . . There are other townships with only two or three delinquent taxes. . . Harrison Township is in the northwest corner of the county.